

SATURN GARCIA RIDERS

You must see this Menacing Motorcycle Madness! This troupe comes from South America and over and over they display strength, discipline, talent, passion and courage. The motorcycle riders are totally in sync!! They perform in a giant steel Globe executing hair-raising maneuvers as they chase each other around at speeds up to 60 miles per hour. They begin by crisscrossing each other's paths and with split second timing, they perform dangerous loops, both sideways and upside down. Another motorcycle enters the Globe with swirling cyclists all around him, the tension, anticipation and excitement are kicked up a notch! This is truly reckless revolving riders racing to the brink of jeopardy inside the ominous Globe!!
